VOCABULARY

I.

Explain the meaning of the four out of six underlined words by applying a precise definition of your own (or a dictionary-like definition) to any two of the six words specified. The explanation of the two out of the four remaining words should be based on their individual contextualisations, that is a meaningful dialogue or some other form of coherent text consisting of several sentences and no fewer than twenty words. You should bear in mind that the meaning of these two words, which must be embedded into the text, should be evident solely from the context provided by you. Keep in mind the word class that each of the underlined words belongs to.¹

... Hindus and Argentines sleep firmly from twelve to one, but Englishmen detest a siesta.

As the officers formed a huddle to decide his fate, Mr Redman offered to go up and help the workmen dismantle the tree house.
