John Osborne, Look Back in Anger

I. You have read the whole play. Now answer the questions below by choosing the correct answer.

1. Which period from the previous century is reflected in the play?

2. Name at least one play by another playwright that appeared at approximately the same time as Look Back in Anger.

3. How was the group of writers Osborne belonged to labelled?

4. How is the play organized?

5. Name the characters from Look Back in Anger?

6. Where does the play take place?

7. On which day does the play start?

8. What part of the day is it at the opening of the play?

9. What are the two men doing when the play starts?

10. How many people will eat dinner in Act II?

11. Who is Helena?

12. Which emotion can Helena see in Jimmy’s eyes when she comes?

13. What was Alison’s father’s job?
14. What was the time after marriage like for Alison?

__________________________________________

15. Where did Alison’s family come from?

__________________________________________

16. What hasn’t Alison told her husband?

__________________________________________

17. Where does Alison go with her father?

__________________________________________

18. Why does Helena slap Jimmy’s face?

__________________________________________

19. Who do we meet several months later at the same place?

__________________________________________

20. What is Cliff’s decision about?

__________________________________________

21. How does Alison look at her return?

__________________________________________

II. Choose one of the characters and describe him/her into detail.

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________

__________________________________________