JOURNEY INTO SLAVERY

2. UNDERLINE THE MISTAKES AND CORRECT THE SENTENCES. USE YOUR LOVELY NOTEBOOKS 😊.

- The worst period of slavery was from the 1900s to 1990s.
- Just a few Africans were taken to North and South America and to the Caribbean as slaves.
- Just a few people died during the journey across the Atlantic because of very good conditions on the ships.
- Those who survived had a party when they arrived.
- Families lived together after that.
- The masters worked on plantations while the slaves controlled them.
- They grew potatoes, corn, apples and salad.
- Many slaves wanted to stay with their masters because of extremely easy life.
- Olaudah Equiano was one of the first masters who had slaves.
- Uncle Tom's Park was a book about slaves' easy life.
- It encouraged people for the slavery.
- Abolition society was first formed in the USA.
- British slave trade was stopped immediately.
- Slavery continued mostly in the American northern states.
- From 1961 to 1965 there was a Civil War between the western and eastern states.
- The east won.
- Although the slaves weren't freed for many years after the war they had equal rights as their white masters.
- Martin Luther King was a Civil Rights campaigner who wanted slavery back.
- The whites were finally given equal rights in education, jobs and voting.
- The slaves mostly prayed during work and they listened to the music of their masters.
- Many types of modern music originate from Europe.
