

Eco Day & Christmas Bazaar 2012

As each year we held a special “Eco Day” at the 3rd Primary School Celje where we try and use the creativity of our students to create art from things we would normally throw away. This would be a shame, especially after seeing first hand what great things come from litter.

This year we’ve sewn dolls, collected refuse, repainted our waste paper container, made jewelry, paper and nylon flowers, created our own board games, painted and much, much more. Take a look...

Since there is usually so much to do we try and combine our Eco Day workshops with our Christmas workshops. This way we can finish the work we have started and then try and use it for our annual Christmas Bazaar which is held in the beginning of December.

Praznujte v miru, sreči, naši dragi, srebrni zvončki naj vam zapoje
naše iskrene želje in voščilo:
prijatelji, imejte se lepo!

At the Christmas Bazaar we try and sell some of the things we make to raise funds for children in need. We invite all our staff, students, parents and neighbors to join in the spirit of giving. Santa Claus is also invited, of course. Because he helps us raise more money for the less fortunate.

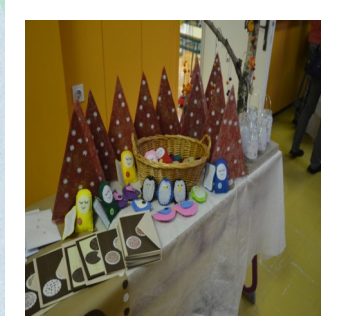

eco to the people

If we do not behave too badly we might even get snow for this occasion. I guess we at least did a few things well this year because on the morning of 8th December we woke up to 20 centimeters of freshly fallen pure white snow.

It can get a bit crowded too, but that's all right. We like it crowded. It only means people like and respect our efforts and they do not take charity lightly.

After a long and tiresome morning we find that our hard work has paid off since we will be able to use the money we have raised to relieve some of our students' families of their financial burdens and enable all of our students to participate in different self or semi financed activities which our school offers extra. Great work everyone! And a sincere thanks to everyone who participated in this years bazaar and all who have given so generously!

With our best wishes for 2013,
the staff, students and parents of 3rd Primary School Celje
