

1. MERGE SENTENCES BY USING WHO, WHICH AND THAT.

1. This is the boy. He saved our cat from drowning.
2. They need a new car. It is run by electricity.
3. I saw a woman. She was wearing a weird hat.
4. We met some tourists. They were from China.
5. That is a woman. She was talking about the use of the Internet.
6. They bought a new car. It cost them a fortune.
7. She was really disappointed with the book. She got it for her birthday.
8. She watched a film. It was about animals.
9. Jack is a boy. He is in class 9. F.
10. He goes out with a girl. She is a year younger.
11. I like flowers. They are colourful.
12. She heard about the murder. It happened in the cathedral.
13. This woman is our new neighbour. She is a doctor.
14. He read a book. It was about detectives.
15. This book is very interesting. It is about worms.

B. WH QUESTIONS

ZNACAJ – What ... like
He is honest. She is kind. He was hard-working. She was serious. They were light-hearted. They are generous. She was mean. He is polite.
VIDEZ – What (do) ... look like
They are messy. He is tall. She is short. He was fat. She was thin. She is slim. She was pretty. He is handsome.
KRIŽI, TEŽAVE – What ... the matter
He has measles. She has flu. They have a headache. She was ill. He had a broken leg. They were dead. He will be angry. She will be happy.
POKLIC – What ... do
He is a cook. She was a hairdresser. He was a teacher. She is a seamstress. They are mechanics. They were policemen. They will be bankers. She will be a clerk.
VRSTA What sort of ...
I like honest people. They saw some hairy monsters. Teddy has watched silly films. We like teachers with a sense of humour. Peter always orders Indian food. She prefers high-heeled shoes to flat ones. Sensitive people can be difficult. You can always rely on loyal friends.

